

Most often I teach with a formal top (on screen) and athletic bottom (off screen). This outfit is made up of a jockey cap, felted green suit, green wool fingerless gloves, a pair of running shorts, pinstriped socks, and extra high winter boots (wide). While wearing this outfit I taught, picked up an NY Public Library card, had a work meeting, and lounged on the couch reading of doctors and their patients.